

ECONOLER TRAINING CENTRE

Trainings Tailored to Market Needs

International Certifications

The Econoler Training Centre, through certified training consultants, offers various specialized trainings in energy efficiency and renewable energy across Canada and on the international scene. These include the Certified Energy Manager (CEM), Certified Measurement and Verification Professional (CMVP) and the Certified in the Use of RETScreen® (CRU) certifications.

Econoler Training Centre

160 rue Saint-Paul
Québec (Québec) G1K 3W1
Canada

+ 1 418 692-2592

Website

www.econolertraining.com

Training	Target Public	Information
Development of energy efficiency policies (2 days)	-Department of Energy -Government agencies -Consultants	Training providing government representatives and energy efficiency policy experts with basic knowledge of specific aspects of the preparation and application of a legislation to promote energy efficiency.
Development of renewable energy policies (2 days)	-Department of Energy -Government agencies -Consultants	Training providing government representatives and energy efficiency policy experts with basic knowledge of specific aspects of the preparation and application of a legislation to promote renewable energy.
Sustainable financing of energy efficiency and renewable energy projects (2 days)	-Department of Energy -Government agencies -Consultants -Energy Sector Asset Management Agency	Training detailing specific barriers to energy efficiency and renewable energy project financing and presenting the best approaches to addressing such issues.
Evaluation of development projects and programs in the energy sector (2 days)	-Government agencies -Experts in program monitoring and evaluation	Training introducing basic concepts to assess the benefits and impacts of government programs promoting energy efficiency and/or renewable energy.
Design and implementation of energy programs (2 days)	-Industrial project developers -Commercial project developers -SME project developers -Public project developers -Municipalities	Training for the efficient implementation of government programs to increase the presence of energy efficiency and renewable energy.
Investment-grade audits (2 days)	-Energy audit experts -Energy efficiency agencies	Training to build the capacity of energy efficiency experts for various energy audits, on the basis of best international practices.

All training courses can be delivered on site.